

Vicente Arroyo

Vicente Arroyo was born in La Coruña Spain in 1945. His education and Doctoral Thesis was done at the University of Barcelona Medical School, and he was a research fellow at King's College Hospital Medical School, University of London.

Vicente Arroyo is Professor of Medicine at the University of Barcelona Medical School. He is Chairman of the European Association for the Study of the Liver Chronic Liver Failure Consortium (EASL-CLIF Consortium) and President of the European Foundation for the Study of Chronic Liver Failure (EF-CLIF). He has been Chief of the Liver Unit at Hospital Clínic of Barcelona, Director of the Institute of Digestive and Metabolic Diseases of the Hospital Clínic of Barcelona, Chairman of the Department of Medicine of the University of Barcelona, and Director of the Esther Koplowitz Biomedical Research Center.

His main areas of research are Complications of Cirrhosis, Ascites and Acute on Chronic Liver Failure. He has published;

- 314 original articles
- 169 editorial and review articles
- 25 books
- 178 chapters of books
- and has given 386 invited lectures.

Vicente Arroyo received the Mauricio Roier Award from the Asociacion Argentina de Gastroenterología, Buenos Aires in 1965, the Award from Fundacion Ciencias de la Salud, Madrid Spain in 2000, Hifenhaus Award 2005, Plasma Protein Therapeutics Association, Prague; and the Recognition Award from the European Association for the Study of the Liver, Berlin in 2011.

Vicente Arroyo is member of the Spanish, European, American and International Association for the Study of the Liver, Honorary member of the Gastroenterology Societies of Argentina, Bolivia, Rio de Janeiro (Brazil), Royal Society of Gastroenterology of Belgium, San Juan de Dios Foundation of Chile and National Academy of Medicine of Brazil.