

Abstract bursaries

EASL supports young investigators, nurses and Allied Health Professionals (AHPs) by helping them to attend all EASL meetings.

Types of abstract bursaries

Full bursaries	Registration bursaries
EUR 800.00 each will be attributed to the presenting author of the best 200 scored abstracts	Waived registration fees for the conference for the presenting author the next best 200 scored abstracts
Waived registration fees for the conference	Free EASL membership for one year
Free EASL membership for one year

Are you eligible?

Young Investigator

All presenting authors only of the best-accepted abstracts who are aged 35 or under (before 15 April 2020) and/or are still in training without geographical restrictions.

Nurse / AHP

All presenting authors only of the best-accepted abstracts who are still active professionals.

How to apply

Applications can only be made during the online abstract submission process: When submitting your abstract, please indicate your wish to apply for a bursary.

The name of the presenting author MUST match the name of the applicant.

The following supporting documents must be provided in English and are to be uploaded during the abstract submission as BMP, GIF, JPG or PDF files (size limit 1 MB):

Young Investigator

- Proof of age: a clear copy of your ID, passport or driver's license indicating your date of birth

OR

- Proof of trainee status: A letter signed by the head of the department on the department's letterhead confirming that you are a trainee

Nurse / AHP

- a clear copy of your ID, passport or driver's license

AND

- Proof of employment status

Bursary conditions

Requests to be considered as a bursary applicant after the abstract submission deadline will not be considered.

EASL will automatically decline all bursary requests that do not conform to the eligibility terms.

Name changes of presenting authors (different than at the time of the abstract submission) will only be accepted if made at the time of the submission of the supporting documentation.

All confirmed bursary recipients will have waived registration fees for the conference. Please only register and pay registration fees in the case you are NOT granted a bursary.

EASL will grant bursaries only to the presenting authors who will attest that they are not being sponsored or covered by any other source in order to attend the EASL event.

If you have been awarded a bursary for a poster presentation it is mandatory to sign in from 9:00 to 12:00 at the poster help desk to validate and confirm your bursary. It is also compulsory for bursary recipients to stand in front of their paper poster during the 1-hour allocated time for poster presentation. Failure to comply with these instructions will result in a non-payment of the bursary.

Bursary payment

The payment of the bursaries to presenting authors will be processed after the congress by bank transfer.